The Inspectors identified points of excellence in the following categories:

Management and Administration

Bursa Technical University School of Foreign Languages' mission has benefited from staff input and shows careful consideration. There is clear evidence of outstanding leadership which involves staff who as a consequence, are motivated by a strong sense of purpose and shared vision in the operation and development of the language centre. There is evidence that there are systems in place to facilitate proactive and strategic management of innovation and change designed to effect improvement in the centre's performance, and the language centre's activities are well integrated within the wider institution's strategy and language policy.

Quality Assurance

Bursa Technical University School of Foreign Languages has a comprehensive quality enhancement plan, based on analysis of qualitative and quantitative data, with set targets for improvement and deadlines for actions needed which deliver continuous improvement. There is an exceptional range of procedures for consulting and obtaining feedback and there are procedures for obtaining regular formal feedback which is followed up and used to drive improvements across the school.

Communication with Staff

At Bursa Technical University School of Foreign Languages there are both formal as well as informal processes for consulting staff form a regular and integral part of the language centre's operation. There is a regular end of year briefing meeting at which management updates staff on developments and projects.

Communication with Students and Other Stakeholders

Bursa Technical University School of Foreign Languages has highly proactive systems to address complaints or negative feedback quickly and effectively. There are appropriately scheduled meetings with all students at which management updates them on any changes and planned developments which may concern them.

Course Design and Supporting Systems

Generous staffing at Bursa Technical University School of Foreign Languages regularly allows teachers paid time for improvement projects such as researching and producing supplementary teaching and learning materials, tests, curricula innovations etc. There is a digital student information management system which, in addition to holding registration and administrative information also contains comprehensive academic information on students, from placement tests, progress tests to final tests, assignments records, attendance figures, etc. all in one place with appropriate levels of access.

Assessment and Certification

Assessment practices and test items are clearly and wholly in line with statements made in the educational philosophy, the centre's mission and its methodological approach. The AI policy includes extremely clear and detailed guidance on the appropriate use of AI in assessment, and the consequences of using it inappropriately. Exceptional care is taken to assess whole skills, in authentic and fully contextualized ways by completing meaningful tasks

Academic Resources

Systematic processes are in place to gather feedback on and review the resources and the effectiveness of the materials in use. There is a Student Learning Centre which includes ample self-access materials, printed and digital resources, and comfortable seating areas to support autonomous language development. The SFL has a studio where they can create their own interactive videos to meet the needs of their students and IT support is extremely responsive

Student Services

The Bursa Technical University School of Foreign Languages team have created a diverse and varied leisure programme to provide students with opportunities to use their English outside the classroom.

In addition you are permitted to publish or share the final version of your report on condition that it is shared or published in its entirety only.

I would like to extend my warmest congratulations on the result of the inspection. At the same time, I encourage you to take careful note of the inspectors' recommendations and I wish you well with your programme of continuous improvement.

Best Wishes
